ALERT: Lovingly preserved for generations, Dudley Farm transforms us back in time with an authentic experience of 1800's Florida farm life. To reduce costs the State has placed Dudley Farm on the list of possible State Park closures. Ironically, this comes at a time when Dudley is being recognized for its cultural significance and may be nominated as a national landmark. Increased visitation is critical to keeping the park open. Contact the Governor and your State Representatives and come celebrate the farm during the Dudley Farm Paint Out.
